Department of Women & Child Development

Notification

1-1-2005-W & CD-Sectt. Cell

Government is hereby pleased to introduce the "Rehabilitation scheme for Commercially Exploited Women and other residential and commercial establishments demolished at Baina".

1. Short title and commencement.— (i) This scheme will be called the "Rehabilitation scheme for Commercially Exploited Women and other residential and commercial establishments at Baina".

(ii) It will come into force at once.

2. Background.— In view of the judgement of Hon'ble High Court of Bombay at Goa, dated 21-7-2003 in Write Petition No. 365/1997, the District Administration was required to take steps to close down the commercial sex activities under I.T.P.A. and other relevant laws time being in force, evict illegal occupants and demolish the illegal constructions on Government land or land belonging to local authorities.

Although, as per the above order, there is no responsibility of the State Government to rehabilitate the above Commercially Exploited Women, and others the State Government on purely humanitarian grounds, has decided to help the person affected by demolitions by framing this scheme.

3. Objectives.— The objective of the scheme is to assist in rehabilitation measure of the following displaced persons consequent upon the demolition undertaken in view of the judgement of the Hon'ble High Court of Bombay at Goa in Writ Petition No. 365/1997.

(a) Commercially Exploited Women.

(b) Other illegal/unauthorized commercial and residential households whose structures could not be saved during the demolition drive.

4. Status.— The programme will be implemented as a State scheme. The State would provide entire (100%) funds, under the scheme.

5. Definition of eligible persons.— The following persons are eligible for rehabilitation in different categories: (a) Commercially Exploited Women who have been registered during the survey conducted by the State Government through Mormugao Municipal Council during November, 2003.

(b) Owner-occupants of the commercial establishments which were duly registered with the Mormugao Municipal Council on or before November, 2003 and demolished.

(c) Other households, whose structures were belonging to occupants and who had established their residency in the area during the inquiry conducted by the Mamlatdar of Mormugao during 1998-99 and which were demolished. (The persons staying on rental basis or staying temporarily are not eligible to be considered under the above scheme. Similarly, owners of structures who had given the premises on rent for residence or shop are not eligible under this scheme. Also persons who have received any compensation under land acquisition proceedings for the structure claimed by them are not covered by this scheme).

6. Financial Assistance to Commercially Exploited Women.— This assistance will be provided by Goa State Commission for Women as follows:—

(a) The Commercially Exploited Women who wish to go back to their parent State will be provided the following financial assistance:

(i) Funds for the ticket for their safe journey to their home State.

(ii) One time financial assistance upto Rs. 1 lakh which will be invested in fixed deposit or any other suitable investment and interest earned will be paid to Commercially Exploited Women. The modalities of compensation and method of retaining investment will be worked out by Goa State Commission for Women along with details of lock-in period.

If any Commercially exploited Women returns back to Goa, then the amount deposited will be taken back/confiscated. Any further interest payments will also stop.

(b) The Commercially Exploited Women who do not wish to go back to their parent State and want to stay in Goa will be provided the following facilities:

(i) Accommodation.— Government shall provide accommodation for maximum 24 months to Commercially exploited Women at any suitable location based on the number of persons opting rehabilitation.

(ii) Financial Assistance.— Commercially Exploited Women opting for rehabilitation shall be given financial assistance for a period of 24 months. The quantum of assistance shall depend upon the size of the family of Commercially Exploited Women and it may vary from Rs. 500/- to Rs. 1200/- per month.

(iii) Educational facilities.— The State Government may provide primary educational facilities to the minor children of these Commercially Exploited Women in the neighboring schools.

(iv) Training and rehabilitation facilities.— The Government will include such women as the target group of beneficiaries of its various employment/self employment schemes. Appropriate skill upgradation or vocational training will be provided in the fields of Papad making, Tailoring etc., free of cost. Further help will be provided to form Self Help Groups and to market their products with the assistance of R.D.A., G.H.R.S.S.I.D.C., ETC.

(c) Those Commercially Exploited Women who get married will be provided one time assistance of Rs. 50,000.00. They will not be entitled to any other assistance.

Goa State Commission for Women will work out further details for implementation.

7. Other commercial establishments.— (a) Efforts will be made so that the owners/occupants of other commercial establishments are provided with suitable stalls on payment basis to carry out their commercial activities.

(b) They may also be given preference while allotting the stalls, by the Mormugao Municipal Council.

Mormugao Municipal Council may work out details and implement this part of scheme.

8. Assistance to the residential houses of non Commercially Exploited Women.— Rehabilitation Board will be responsible for construction of residential accommodation. The affected owner-occupants who have lost their tenements were provided temporary shelter immediately and further they have been provided up to Rupees 10,000/- as immediate financial assistance to make their own temporary residential arrangement. Government will provide subsidized residential accommodation on installments. Details of the same will be worked out separately.

9. Government may relax any condition, revise the scheme or part thereof, and modify/substitute any condition if circumstances so require.

10. Government may extend this scheme to persons affected by any further demolition in Baina.

11. This is issued with the approval of Cabinet.
